

Contents

Introduction: The Arab Spring: How Immune Are the GCC Countries?	1
May Seikaly and Khawla Mattar
1 Democratic Challenge in the Gulf: Between Aspiration and Desperation	9
May Seikaly
2 The Impact of the Arab Spring on the Arab Gulf States	35
Abdulkhaleq Abdulla
3 Notions of Sovereignty in the Arab World: An Examination of State and Citizenship in the Aftermath of the Arab Spring	59
Yacoob Abba Omar
4 Women and the Arab Spring in Saudi Arabia: A Nascent Social Movement?	83
Soraya Altorki
5 The Local and the Transnational in the Arab Uprisings: The Protests in Saudi Arabia's Eastern Province	105
Toby Matthiesen
6 That Late Unpleasantness: The Arab Spring in Oman	145
Jennifer S. Hunt

7	A Spring of Concentric Circles: Overlapping Identities in Kuwait and Bahrain and Their Effect on the Arab Spring	173
	Reem Abou-Samra
8	Bahrain's Uprising in Cyberspace	203
	Basma El-Bathy
9	The Arab Spring through Gulf Satellite Television Stations: Reporting or Controlling?	223
	Khawla Mattar
10	And Then Came the Uprising!	237
	May Seikaly and Khawla Mattar
	About the Contributors	243