

Contents

Introduction	1
Tim Niblock
1 The Role of East Asian Countries in the Evolving Security Dynamics and Architecture of the Gulf Region	7
Tim Niblock
2 The Gulf Security Imbrolio: Shaping an Asian Initiative for a New Regional Cooperative Security Architecture	31
Talmiz Ahmad
3 Saudi Arabia and the US Alliance: No Place for an Asian Alternative?	69
Mohammed Turki Al-Sudairi
4 Kuwait and East Asia: from the 1950s to Today	93
Dania Thafar
5 Iran and East Asian Countries: the Economic Dialogue and its Strategic Implications	113
Nikolay Kozhanov
6 Structural Change in the International Oil and Gas Markets and its Impact on China-GCC Relations	137
Yang Guang
7 The Relevance of China's 10-Year Development Guidelines for China-GCC Relations	151
Chen Mo
8 Gulf Strategic Partnership in the East Asian Context: Hong Kong as China's Gateway of Islamic Finance?	169
Ho Wai-Yip

9	Japan's Politico-Strategic Relations with the Gulf	183
	Yukiko Miyagi
10	The Demise of Japan's Independent Policy in the Middle East	203
	Keiko Sakai
11	The Japan Maritime Self-Defence Force and Regional Security in the Indian Ocean and the Gulf: Looking Towards 2023	225
	Hirotake Ishiguro
12	The Changing Strategic Interests of the Gulf-South Korea Relationship: from Nuclear to Military Cooperation	239
	Jeongmin Seo
	About the Contributors	261