

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Preface: GCC Higher Education Comes of Age	1
Dale F. Eickelman
1 Building Universities that Lead: The Arabian Peninsula	8
Dale F. Eickelman
2 Western and Islamic Models of Higher Education in Saudi Arabia and Iran	23
Keiko Sakurai
3 Higher Education and the Changing Aspirations of Women in Saudi Arabia	42
Namie Tsujigami
4 Making a Branch Campus “Work”: Georgetown University’s School of Foreign Service in Qatar	55
Daniel C. Stoll
5 Journalism and Scholarship: How One Learns in Qatar	72
Mary L. Dedinsky
6 Education as Public Diplomacy: The Soft Power Potential of Qatar Higher Education	92
Alieu Manjang
7 The Health of Nations: The Evolution and Structure of Public Health Higher Education in the GCC	106
Muhammad H. Zaman and Katie Clifford
8 Science and Engineering Education in the GCC: Challenges and Transformations	123
Afreen Siddiqi, Laura Diaz Anadon, and Venkatesh Narayanamurti
9 Afterword: State-Society Dialogues in the GCC Knowledge Economy	135
Rogaia Mustafa Abusharaf
About the Contributors	141
Index	143