With a concern for context and history, this major reference work presents key academic contributions devoted to the study of early, classical and pre-modern Islamic theological thought.

The aim is to provide a balanced survey of the research discourses which have shaped study of the rich legacy of Islamic theology and Kalām.

Divided into three volumes and comprising 39 articles, the collection includes an introduction which provides not only an assessment of key discussions and debates in the study of Islamic theology, but also examines significant developments in the field.

Volume 1 Islamic Theology in Context – Gestation and Synthesis

Volume 2 Kalām – Approaches and Developments
