

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction	1
1 Historical Background I: The Discovery & Perceptions of the West in the Modern Age	15
2 Historical Background II: The Life and Works of Sayyid Quṭb (1906-1966)	29
3 Quṭb's Early Encounter with Western Modern Civilisation	47
4 The "West-East" Duality & Quṭb's Early Views on "Islam" in Relation to "Christianity" and "Judaism"	79
5 The Westerner as the "Other" in Quṭb's 1960s Writings, with Special Emphasis on the Doctrine of Jābiliyya	105
Conclusion: Quṭb's Islamism as a Drastic Discontinuity with the Islamic "Cumulative Traditions" of the Past	133
Notes	141
Glossary	205
Bibliography	213